IN INTERIOR DESIGN, AS IN FASHION, EVERYTHING old is new again. And this year, brass, the metal that dominated fixtures in the 1970s and '80s, is back in a big way. Bring the retro trend into your living space with this over-size suspension lamp from Gervasoni, updated for the 21st century with an organic shape and sleek, hammered-metal texture. Available in two sizes at Showroom, in the Back

Bay, the showstopper can be hung low over a coffee table or high over a dining room set for maximum impact. "Not only is it visually appealing and stunning, but it's undeniably functional," says store owner Doug Gates. "It creates a level of intimacy as it umbrellas over a seating area." Now if only you could find a way to bring back those acid-washed jeans in your closet. —ABBY BIELAGUS
